Re: CBC Awarded VCC Media Award

Dear Michael Enright,

On behalf of the Board of Directors of Vaccine Choice Canada, I am writing to inform you CBC's The Sunday Edition has been awarded our 2016 media award. The award titled 'Adding Insult to Injury' recognizes media entities that continue to disseminate deceptive, distorted and dishonest information pertaining to the topic of vaccinations in Canada.

CBC's The Sunday Edition earned the award as a result of its unwillingness to address incorrect information and misrepresentations made on the program of June 19, 2016 entitled, 'The Backfire Effect'.

CBC failed to make a public correction of the inaccurate statements made in this program related to the known relationship between vaccines and autism, or to apologize for any misunderstanding this misinformation may have caused in spite of being provided with accurate information and documentation by Vaccine Choice Canada.

This failure by the CBC undermines confidence in Canada's national broadcaster as a credible source of information as pertains to the topic of vaccinations. These actions are a disservice to all Canadians, especially those children neurologically injured and killed by vaccines.

A hard copy of the award will be mailed to you and award winners will be posted on the Vaccine Choice Canada website.

Sincerely,

Edda West, President of Vaccine Choice Canada
