PUBLIC ORDER
EMERGENCY
COMMISSION

Analysis (Part 1)

Dear VCC Community,

The Rouleau Commission Report confirmed what I have gradually come to realize over the years – the government does not have my back. I used to assume the government was acting in my best interest; that they were there to protect me and my family, and to stand up for my rights and freedoms. I no longer believe this.

The integrity of the government was made clear by the decision of Justice Rouleau that the Government was justified in enacting what was effectively a military assault on peaceful Canadians protesting the overreach of government. The conclusion that the government was justified, while acknowledging that the Emergency Act could have been avoided, is pure Orwellian double-speak.

What has become obvious is that we are in an abusive relationship with our government. Not unlike an abusive marriage, we are victims of physical and mental abuse, economic control, isolation, shaming, marginalization, punishment, and fear mongering – all characteristics of a relationship based on power and control.

I should have come to this realization sooner. Rocco Galati advised me years ago that governments are the most dangerous organizations in the world. Because our government was not as abusive as others, we in Canada thought we were safe. We had a Charter of Rights and Freedoms. We had, what we thought, was a duly elected government. We had representation at the local level. I've discovered all of this is a sham. By any measure of reasonable success, our governments have failed us these last three years.

The only saving grace is that many more Canadians are now aware of who and what our government is and is not. It's time to end this abusive relationship. It's time for true accountability. It's time for a National Citizen's Inquiry.

What Would Gandhi Do?

There is a great expression which has been doing the rounds during the last few years which is “What would Gandhi do?” The whole point of this question is to imagine what great leaders and thinkers would do when faced with the madness we are currently trying to wade through.

Yet when it comes to vaccinations we don’t have to try to imagine what Gandhi would do. He has already clearly told us!

Survey Results

from Last Week

What was your proudest moment with the Freedom Convoy?

- When I saw the memorial statues being cleaned and Freedom Fighters guarded them from further graffiti.
- Seeing my Sister and her Husband in a viral video with her placard supporting the Truckers!
- Seeing all those truckers roar across Canada in the middle of winter with their horns, flags, message of hope and defiance and all the folks who greeted and cheered them on their way.
- Seeing all those truckers roar across Canada in the middle of winter with their horns, flags, message of hope and defiance and all the folks who greeted and cheered them on their way.
- When the emergency measures act was revoked!
- To know there were so, but so many people out there thinking and feeling the way I did.
- Coming together for what we know to be right, and expressing our frustration with what we know to be wrong.

- To see the people coming together as one! to see all braving the cold, making bagged lunches, being humans. I cried tears of connection and joy as I watched. I was proud of their bravery, and willingness to speak with action. I will remember always their strength and commitment to life, and freedom.
- Standing together with freedom, loving Canadians on the bridge in Nanaimo waving our flags for the convoy as they showed their appreciation by honking and waving to us. This gives us so much pride as Canadians and hope for Canada.
- The overwhelming support of people coming out and getting together at the overpasses along the 401 to meet the truckers on their way to Ottawa was simply amazing! The love was palpable and we all held such hope in our hearts for FREEDOM!
- Canadians standing on highways and overpasses everywhere with flags in the bitter cold.
- Their aspiration to uphold the fundamental freedoms of Canadians and indeed, all humanity.
- Every moment I participated in the Convoy was my proudest moment ever. Words cannot express how the Freedom Convoy gave us hope, courage and faith in humanity. We are eternally grateful to the truckers for their brave actions and their contribution to humanity. We will never forget and we will always follow their lead.

- Watching the video cams from the big trucks as they went by showing thousands of people at -40 below lining the highways waving flags.
- First seeing the line up of trucks on Jan 29th headed to Ottawa
- For me, it was the experience of traveling down the 401 from Chatham to London with the Convoy and seeing each and every overpass, each and every service road and each and every off ramp full of Freedom Fighters. As a lifelong Canadian and a Freedom Fighter from the start, I was profoundly moved by this. In fact, I will never be the same again.
- Going downtown on a few occasions and meeting Canadians from the East Coast to the West Coast of Canada; people from Quebec and Alberta; Immigrants, Refugees, Canadians and Indigenous People; all standing together, laughing, sharing, communicating and standing in unity for freedom and basic human rights, and celebrating being Canadian. It was better than any Canada Day celebration I have attended in Ottawa! The speeches and music were inspiring, the atmosphere of sharing, caring and generosity was incredible, and it made me proud to be part of this unifying and peaceful movement.

- When the Truckers gathered and headed to Ottawa for our Rights despite being a financial hardship for themselves.
- Cheering them from overpasses as they went to Ottawa. But overall the fact these folk gave up their everything to take a stand. Watching the horse riders join from Montana was also awesome.
- Standing on a bridge, as they headed to Ottawa, to let the truckers know they had my support. They gave me hope.
- Standing there, taking it all in and realizing how many Canadians were questioning everything just like I was. I wasn't alone. It was such a beautiful realization that I started bawling my heart out and my Auntie, who had had 2 shots for her job, also cried and held me.

“We may desire freedom, but without taking on the immense responsibility it requires, we simply join the race for a version that is little more than self-centered hedonism. That responsibility may mean boldly speaking truth in the face of lies. Other times, it may require refusing to comply when compelled by an authority to act in ways harmful to those around us or which violate our conscience. Heed that conscience. Be the steadfast, calm leaders our nation so desperately needs.”
