Message From Ted

Dear VCC Community,

I've had the pleasure and benefit of some interesting conversations this week. One was with Vincent Gircys who described the past three years this way. He said – “There was a magic show, a bank robbery, and a multi-car pile-up.” The magic show is the amount of deception we have experienced. The bank robbery is the transfer of wealth to big business, banks, media and those who would comply with the magic show. And the multi-car pile-up is the casualties caused by those at the front who made the wrong decisions.

Vincent also introduced me to the musings of Kate Wand. In the video found below, Kate presents the idea that humanity has repeatedly gone through cycles of creation and destruction, and that it's possible, even likely, that a pending destruction cannot be avoided. She calls those of us who see the destruction “the remnants”. Our responsibility is to survive the pending collapse so we can rebuild a new and better society.

And finally, Dr. Denis Rancourt, who was our guest at our national VCC zoom meeting on Wednesday. Dr. Rancourt was asked – What gives you hope? He responded with – “I don't deal in hope. I deal in action.” He also said – “I measure life by the amount of new knowledge I acquire.” He then described the past three years as an explosion of creativity and resilience, which fills him with hope.

There is no doubt in my mind that we are in a new time. I too see that we are in a period of death and rebirth. When I stand back and observe the human condition from this 30,000 foot level, our purpose becomes clearer. It is our job to be the light to lead us through this darkness.

Blessings,
Ted

What Gives Better Protection — Natural Immunity or Vaccination?

by Alan Brough

It is a bold thing to say 'research confirms' when it comes to anything. The reason is that carefully selected research data can be used to support pretty much any argument or point of view, especially when you have numerous variables. And this is why so many people have fallen for the official "follow the science" narrative which has been very good at manipulating data and how it is used to justify commercial or political interests.

Survey Results

from CI April 29, 2023

How is it that you saw the tyranny and others didn't?

Other:

- Distrust of government. I smelled a rat
- I have been opposed to the silly germ theory for as long as I can remember. My philosophy is "If you are sick it is probably your own fault." – especially where acute syndromes (colds, flu, etc.) are concerned. So when the baloney came along 3 years ago, I just rolled my eyes. However, I had NO idea that the Powers would use this as an excuse for doing what they did.

- I watch a lot of murder mysteries on tv. A most crucial part of finding the killer is the autopsy. Here, from the start, autopsies were forbidden.
- My father, long deceased, taught me to question everything, and to NOT believe anything just because it's on TV or in the newspaper. We both cherished truth tellers like George Carlin. I started reading G. Edward Griffin way back in the 90's as well as David Icke.
- The answer to many questions in Ted's message today is MONEY, MONEY and one more time MONEY. The cabal was plundering the world for centuries, and Covid was the reason to cover up that the world's pension funds etc were empty!
The entire world was bribed, captured, payed off and evil ness like WEF, WHO, Trilateral Commission and similar think tanks, everything Rockefellers had their fingers in came to the surface to destroy humanity. But greed and stupidity led to overreach, just enough people woke up to put the brakes on. The clean up will take more courage.
- Years before 2020 I had a premonition that weaponized injections were coming. Looking at world events through the lens of Bible prophecy quickly alerted me to what was really going on. A coming one-world government, one-world religion and cashless society—all of it is predicted in the Bible. So far around 2000 of the 2500 or so prophecies recorded in the Bible have been fulfilled. No errors. <https://reasons.org/> In this epic war that we are in, it's refreshing to dip into the waters of ancient wisdom found in the Bible. I'm thankful that people like Dr. Sherri Tenpenny and her guests are addressing prophecy in her Special Events Series <https://drtenpenny.com/revelation/> We can choose wisdom and be ready for the Lord's return to escape the worst of what's coming. And for those who took the covid injection, she also gives some words of wisdom <https://tenpennywalkwithgod.substack.com/p/go-forgives-if-you-ask>

- I have had visions of this time since an early age. My spiritual teacher spoke about the division of the population in 1994. I've just been waiting. But I never expected the speed with which it's all being implemented.
- All of the above plus I don't watch TV but I do listen to the radio. It became very apparent to me that something was wrong when all the news for days and then weeks in 2020 was about only ONE topic. Having had some training in marketing, it was clear to me some brainwashing was happening and that there was a money transfer to big corporations when their stores could be open but not our local merchants. I still wonder why others don't see the tyranny. Maybe they're too busy following rules to ask any questions. Maybe they just can't believe that such a big and cruel plan could be enacted on us nice Canadians (it IS a harsh red pill to swallow and there's no going back). Maybe they just don't care because they are overwhelmed by dealing with the rest of their lives (aging parents or spouses, raising children, difficult work situations, etc etc) Maybe they all listen to the Canadian Baloney Corp. Still searching for the answer to that one.

I was suspicious of mainstream media's fear mongering and was receiving emails from Green Med Info who were presenting facts contrary to the narrative. Also, I was influenced by a friend, listened to his media sources and saw something was very wrong.

- Coming from Holland and born during the war, I am very aware of how that started, and this felt the same. I also very much noticed how none of these people were talking about real measures to improve health, such as food, exercise, supplements, etc.
- I have always been curious.
My main purpose for reading has been to grow and expand my mind.
I am a seeker of the truth in all aspects of life and afterlife: food,
I have a strong intuition where I just know something even when I don't understand everything about it.

- Had past experience with government (UK) and learned my history about past wars that were illegal and government lied about.
- When I read the symptoms I thought this is just the flu!!
I watch alternate media so I became sceptical about 2 weeks into this plandemic.
- Taught myself to think for myself, took time to actually LOOK at what is!
I was born in Berlin, was witness, over a period of time, to the erection of the WALL
I ask questions to see if there are any answers and if they add up.
I don't take our freedoms or our rights or our Democracy for granted
- I accept that there is the potential for destructive and constructive behavior in each human. I face that in myself and commit to constantly trying to improve myself. I notice a lot of people can not talk about destructive behavior within themselves, their families, and communities. It's not a safe thing for them to do so they pretend like everything is positive in their immediate relationships. They don't want to be seen as negative. As result, they do not develop the skills to have successful conversations about this. Narcissists, sociopaths, and psychopaths thrive because of this. I see this everywhere. The “awake” communities are not immune to this.

- I had some good role models!
- I worked in healthcare for 30 years before retiring. I was skeptical from the getgo. I had stopped taking the flu shot three years before I retired, much to the nursing staff surrounding me. But I realized that I was sicker from it and later proved than without.
- I have researched vaccines and pharmaceuticals before this event and knew they and the media were total liars.
- I follow Dr. Mercola and watched his interview with Dr. Judy Mikovits about how deadly the mRNA jab would be And I also had a bad reaction to the flu vaccine when it was first introducing. My grandson will not be getting vaccinated!
- I have been vegetarian/vegan since I was 20 and will be 60 in May.

So I have practiced health principles for a long time.

When the Plandemic unfolded – I knew there was something not right.

Just put on a mask – stand apart – Nothing about natural immunity?

Vitamin C, D, Zinc, and a Healthy Diet for my God – God immunity.

I have also known about the corruption of “Big Pharma”.

Also growing up in church – hearing about Biblical Prophecy – “End – Times – Last Days” – “plagues”, etc.

- I had done prior research on the Global Agenda back in 2012. I also researched alternative medicine due to an injury. I had had very bad experiences with the medical system, and I knew that doctors were lying with respect to the extent of the corruption in medicine. I knew they were controlled by Big Pharma.
- Parents come from communist country, was made aware.
- Being a retired military/law enforcement officer, I have studied national security and global issues for decades. The Red/Green Axis including the UN have had this agenda and time line in place. Their calendar is not our calendar.
We're not done with this yet!
- My God given instincts and discernment of Good and Evil.
- I totally eschew msm and get all my news and info from indy Media.
- Seeking wisdom from God constantly
- Most people expect to see tyranny that is as ugly as Nazi Brownshirts smashing targeted people's store windows, beating people in public, and corralling them in dirty, infested sub-standard housing situations, and to do so based on race or religion — and to have public media outraged against these things. With bought media and the targeted population being somewhat amorphous, and the tyranny brought in under the guise of “caring for the greater collective good”, our concerns were brushed off as trivial exaggerations.

- I grew up in a communist country before I moved to Canada, and learned that I cannot trust the government and political leaders. It was obvious to see over the last few years that history, indeed, repeated itself. I was dismayed to see how the governments and authorities crushed our civil liberties under the slogan of “safe and effective”.
- A friend shared alternative news sources. I’ve always questioned everything in life. Questions are a good thing!
- It didn’t make sense 😞
- I heard Bill Gates, for years, saying a pandemic would come and a vaccine would be our only saviour. 😞
- I grew up in an abusive home. I learned not to trust people in positions of authority from a very young age. I saw that they were using fear to manipulate people.
I know enough not to trust the government or media, and they blindly trust both because they're too lazy and scared to think or care about anything beyond official narratives.

- First I was skeptical, governments overreact. I also saw every government doing and saying the same thing, this is unusual. I remember thinking , why are we listening to the WHO, don't we have our own experts in Canada. Just too many things didn't add up. I learned 2 things, don't trust government and don't trust the media.
- I've noticed that those of us who's minds are not hijackable by psy-ops have a certain type of consciousness. Those that have been successfully brainwashed include extremely intelligent and educated people. This is not about IQ. It's almost as though there are 2 species of humans.
- I recognized right off the corruption and incompetence of the WHO and our politicians. After seeing the media's lies about Trump, I started seeing all the other lies and became very skeptical of the biased agenda they seemed to be pushing.
- God gave me discernment.
- There was an inner sense in 2020 that we were being lied to. I have seen this so often with western medicine. The move to "vaccinate" an entire world population against a "virus" was recognized immediately by many of us as malevolent. Viruses and bacteria are a necessary part of life on this planet and are not a threat. Our responsibility is to maintain a healthy body, mind and spirit. The crisis of the past three years is the Great Reveal. The veil is being lifted and the truth is setting us free! I have studied natural health and read many books exposing the medical system, so as soon as the whole covid thing started I knew it was a scam.

- The lying, gaslighting track record of the captured, weaponized governments, media, and institutions speaks for itself. They do not have the best interests of the citizenry in mind, but are puppets that report to a higher, dark entity.
- Skeptical about putting anything foreign into my body.

I could see that the “Health Measures” imposed and dictated to us did not make sense in a medical way. By watching people in a grocery store and everywhere else, touching everything and then using their phone, it was easy to deduct that if there was a killer virus in there, standing on the circle and the plexiglass in front of the teller would not be enough to protect against a dangerous virus.

Is it Time to Diversify Your Assets?

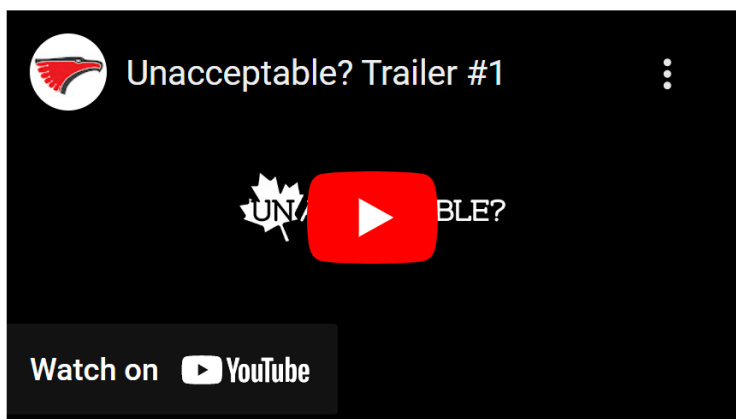

We are living in uncertain times and need to take action to preserve our assets in the event of financial collapse. One consideration is to convert some of your assets into precious metals. The media said the Canadian truckers were Russian agents, controlled by Vladimir Putin.

Justin Trudeau called them extremists.

And the government put the country under quarantine law to stop them.

But what's the real story? For the first time, the woman at the heart of the trucker convoy speaks out.

Tamara Lich: passionate organizer; loving mother and grandmother; proud Metis and proud Albertan; and defiant political prisoner, jailed for daring to criticize the government.

Her new book "Hold the Line: My Story from the Heart of the Freedom Convoy" is the inside scoop of what really happened.

You've heard from the media and the convoy's critics. Now hear the truth from the woman who inspired the world and made Justin Trudeau blink.
